

A Life of Hope

GOD's greatest gifts come through great pain
Always He shows us His strength
We stumble and fall, His love never measures ~
He giveth and giveth again
Deep sorrow outweighs our days sometimes
Hearts in dismay, He comes on time
He whispers in voice, "Child of mine, I'm here to comfort you that your spirit would shine.
Hide not your troubles; hide not your woes.
Don't ever doubt, I'll take care of your sorrows.
But you must believe that it is I who change your pains to joy and that I am Life!
Let me hold your hand; let me hold you close
Let me dry your tears; let me soothe your woes
Let me breathe in you a life restored
Faith renewed, a life of hope.
Hide not your worries; hide not your pains
Don't mope; don't whimper –
those ways won't bring you gain
All tribulations offer to me
I am the One who can set you free!
