

A Sinner, I Am, my LORD!

I am a sinner, my LORD, wretched and not pure!
I wallow in the mire of an unrepentant soul!
But You came and offered me Your hand –
You offered Your love and pulled me out of life's quicksand!
You took me out from twisted paths and cleansed my impurities
You've straightened my body that was out of shape
Contortions of a wandering soul have been straightened
And my sins You have erased!
How can I ever repay You?
Darkened alleys I now see because of the light You left in me.
You saved me from all confusions.
Complex life, I no longer carry.
You have redeemed me! You've set my spirit free!
I am cleansed by the grace of GOD's Lamb – that's You!
Pigmentations of a distorted life no longer have a hold on me.
Nor do I cower in fear for You're always near to whom I can always run to –
To where my paling spirit can always be rescued –
A love like Yours is redeeming and cleansing!
Healing and mending is Your touch!
It is one of its kind.
Thank You for loving me.
You taught me how to do the same with others along the way.
Kindness in my soul is what I need to give as You have commanded.
I search for no one else but You!
Your love restored my brokenness!
Your touch has blessed me and I am complete!
You are the owner of my soul!
You fill up my world tremendously!
Unending moments of joy is what I have since You've set me free!
My purpose in life I truly understand.
I walk with You hand in hand.
LORD, this is where I stand.
I will follow You forever because of the love You give.
I live, LORD, because in You I believe!
